ACHS Hosts FHA Meeting

The Appomattox County High School Chapter Future Homemakers of America was host for the second annual leadership conference for the Campbell-Appomattox FHA Federation on Friday, September 29, 1978. Home Economics students from Altavista, Brookville, Rustburg, William Campbell and Appomattox attended the all-day conference. Mr. John McLean and Mr. Lloyd Walton extended greetings from ACHS and the Appomattox County School Board.

Featured speaker for the morning session was Ms. Mary Sue Terry, member, House of Delegates, Thirteenth District, Commonwealth of Virginia. She spoke on the conference theme, "Learning For Living." Following her presentation FHA/HERO members attended chapter workshops on such topics as Parliamentary Procedure, duties of each officer, committee projects and individual projects.

After a bag lunch each participant chose two workshops to attend concerning pertinent topics of today's youth. Such topics as alcoholism, child abuse, ERA, energy conservation and careers in various fields related to Home Economics were discussed.

Mr. Richard Carter spoke to the group during the closing session on "What's Ahead for FHA/HERO and Home Economics Education." Cheryl Walton serves as the Federation secretary this year and Mrs. Betty Jo Smith is her advisor and FHA sponsor at ACHS.

BROWNIES EXPRESS THANKS

Deepest thanks from Brownie Troop 945 to all the people who helped make Railroad Day a success for us. These people did not hesitate to answer our requests in the affirmative. Thanks to G. H. Jamerson of Jamerson Brothers Trucking Company, Mary Carrington Garriss of Garris Upholstery Shop, Mrs. Ted Carter, Bobby Stewart of Amelia Dress Company, Inc., Fred C. Carter, Sr., Jimmy and Carolyn Mayberry, Coradine Fitzgerald, Debbie Williams, Mark and Kelly Hunter, Roy Hopkins and last, but by no means least, "Big Shine." We were proud to represent these people and our town in the parade.

Sincerely, Brownie Troop No. 945.

Hi There - - -

Enjoying the cool weather? I hope so. Of course it means getting ourselves inside the home more and more. You know what? A beautiful dried arrangement for the table would really brighten any home-- I found some outstanding ones the other day in all price ranges; they would really set the mood for fall entertaining. Oh, don't forget, those big mums---the ones that make that football game special...you can find all these and so many more beautiful things at

What's Happening

By Becky Moore

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Coleman returned Thursday from a trip to Switzerland where they enjoyed its snow covered mountains and charming villages. The trip sponsored by Southern States was awarded to those agencies who increased their feed volume during the last year.

Carolyn and Dan visited Zurich, Thun, Berne and Geneva in Switzerland and the Black Forest of Germany. Carolyn tells us the prices of some of the gift items were higher than here in the states; however they returned with some beautiful clocks.

Mrs. J. Vernon Torrence and Mrs. Julian C. Guill left Appomattox on Friday for Philadelphia where they will visit relatives until October 1. They will then leave for London, England. Shirley and Clydie while there will spend a week and take a Theatrical tour.

Mr. Maude Getz will spend a week in Philadelphia with her son, Robert.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Brke, Dr. and Mrs. S. R. Lawson, Dr. and Mrs. John M. Fedison spent this past week end in Williamsburg. It was a week end of golf. They played Kings Mill course on the James River on Saturday. The weather was cool but nice and all in all it was a great day. Bobby had a little trouble on one hole when he stepped up to "tee off." The ball hit a tree and bounced back two feet in front of him. He was a little disgusted when he had to take a penalty for "lost ball." "That's just the way "that ball bounces!"

* * *

Mrs. F. L. Eggleston, (Tootsie) who is a patient in Virginia Baptist Hospital is doing nicely after her surgery last Monday. Tootsie expects to be leaving the hospital this week. The flowers and candy she has been receiving are very nice.

Bill Dooley, David (Lamie), and Zollicoffer.

Virginia Tech 22-19 football victory over William and Mary Saturday before 34,000 fans. "Well I tell you," says Dooley, "the only thing I know for sure is that the officials were right on top of the play. I don't care what you do, if you are in possession for that one instant. I don't care if you fumble, kick, or take the air out of the football, it's still a touchdown!"

"David 34 (Jamie) threw the ball over 55 yards in the air and Zollicofer went up and got it," said the Tech coach.

Well, now could it be after the second win of the season against two losses that, what Bill Dooley did so well for "Carolina Blue" he's gonna do for you! (us).

Railroad Day was a great day for most of us, but a new resident of Appomattox had a rather disappointing day!

This new person in town came in on Court Street and saw some of the parade floats in front of him with some of the football jerseys. "Well" he thought, I did play a little college football in my day, but how could they have known this. Boy, I'm really going to like this town, they sure know how to make a guy feel welcome. I drove on slowly when a policeman came up to the window and says, "Why don't you just pull over and park? You can walk from here. It's only two or three blocks."But you must not know "who I am." "No sir," the policeman said, "but the officials' cars are up front." I just knew he had not caught the drift,when he added, "Maybe if you run you can catch'em.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. M. E. Henderson, president, Alice Kyle District, Virginia Federation of Woman's Clubs. Mrs. Henderson, a member of Tuesday Woman's Club in South Boston, has served as that club's president and secretary. She has also served on the state nominating committee and as district secretary and credentials chairman. Besides being active in club work, she has been active in other civic affairs. She is a member of the Y.M.C.A. board of directors and on the board of the Mental Health Association for the county of Halifax and the city of South Boston. Mrs. Henderson is an assistant Sunday school teacher at First Presbyterian Church, South Boston.

The topic of Mrs. Henderson's presentation was "Faith, Hope, and Love." She spoke about attitudes toward friends, family and citizens of our community.

Other guests at the supper meeting were Mrs. June Chenault, senior advisor, and Mrs. Paige Nolen, District 2nd. vice-president.
